

Legal assistance for financial wellness

One of the many benefits of your Legal Plan

A recent survey conducted by Harris Poll¹ reveals that group legal plans can have a positive impact on financial wellness. The study shows that among those with access to a group legal plan:

- 82% of those enrolled in a legal plan say they worry less about unexpected financial issues
- 75% of employees who have a legal plan say they feel confident planning for today and the future

The statistics aren't that surprising. After all, many financial issues — such as debt collection and tax audits — are also legal issues that can cost you a great deal of money. This financial stress can affect your home life and have a negative impact on your productivity at work.

With over 18,000 attorneys on your side, MetLife Legal Plans can help you worry less about financial matters in your life. We assist our members with a variety of legal matters related to financial issues, including estate planning, credit card or student loan debt collection, tax audits, home refinancing and more.

Even if you only use the Legal Plan once in a year, the plan will likely pay for itself. Approximately 85% of plan members decide to re-enroll each year.⁴
